

Santa Fe Science Café for Young Thinkers

“Warming Up a Cool Planet”

Eileen Everett

Down to Earth Education

Thursday, October 20

6:00-7:30 PM

Georgia O’Keeffe Museum

Education Annex

123 Grant Avenue, Santa Fe

Climate change is one of the hottest topics of our time! We read about climate change and its importance for our changing world, but what can we believe? Discover how to wade through all of the media hype and get to the science behind climate change. Explore the impact of rising temperatures on New Mexico’s future landscape with an expert educator in this field.

Admission is Free. Youth (ages 13-19) seating a priority. Light refreshments will be served. Eileen will also appear at 8:30 AM the same day on the Santa Fe Radio Café (KSFR 101.1 FM) with host Mary Charlotte streaming from www.ksfr.org.

Eileen has been the Climate Change Educator with the NM Museum of Natural History and Science, has worked for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Randall Davey Audubon Center and Audubon New Mexico. She holds a BA in Human Ecology from College of the Atlantic and an MS in Wildlife Science from NMSU.
